5th, Linz:

My advance guard i.s within six days' march of Vienna. Mural keeps in touch with the enemy.

(Jth. (To Prince Murat.) The oHieer you have .sent me is such a fool that he could explain nothing, and your letter gives no details, so that I can't tell whether the enemy are retreating or are in position, the numlwr of gum, and what part of Oudmot's division was engaged,

13th, Burkcrsdorf:

I entered Vienna this morning.

14th, Sehoenbrunru

Marshal Soult's corps passed through Vienna at nine o'clock this morning; Marshal Davwil'a is passing through now.

15th. All our columns are in Moravia at several days' march from the Danube.

(To Prince Joseph Napoleon.) I am now mawruvrmg against the Russian army, and have not htul occasion to be very satisfied with Benwulotte, He hiw last me it cky» and the fate of the world may depend on n day. I should much like to set* Junot, for I am each day more firmly convinced that the men I have tmiiuxl myself arts far and away the bent, 1 tun still very pletwfnl with Murat, Lsmnes, Davout, Hoult, NVy, and Mivnmmt I intend to make the generals and officers wins have nervtHl KM* well so rich that there can l«» no exnww for thdr diHhoruniritig the inost noble «f profcusiaiw by their git), while* drawing down on tht%m»elvra the contempt of the soldiers

16th, (To Josephine.) I am writing to M, d'lfarvtlb that you can proeml ti» Badrn, from thare to Btuttgnrtlt, and from there to Munich, Be grociotttt, but twwpt alJ
